TENTH The Tenants shall not without the previous consent in writing of the Landlords, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, affix, paint or otherwise exhibit on the exterior of the premises any sign, notice, placard, poster or advertisement provided always that nothing contained in the present clause or in any other provision of this Lease shall prevent the Tenants from erecting and exhibiting and maintaining on any part of the premises such neon or other advertising and identification posters and signs as may accord with the normal practice in similar cases but always subject to the Tenants obtaining at their own expense any consent thereto of the Planning Authority which may be required by law, and provided that the Tenants shall remove all such signs at the termination of this Lease and make good any damage caused by such removal.

ELEVENTH

The Landlords or their Agents or Factors shall have the right at any time during the currency of this Lease during reasonable hours on giving reasonable prior notice except in cases of emergency to enter with or without workmen and others upon the premises to view the state of repair and condition of the same and to take and check inventories of fixtures therein (other than and excepting tenant's and trade fixtures,fittings, plant and machinery affixed thereto by or belonging to the Tenants) and to give or leave in the premises notice in writing to the Tenants of any defects and the Tenants shall be bound within a period of three months after such notice or sooner if requisite to repair and make good the same according to such notice.

TWELFTH

There are reserved to the Landlords or their Tenants rights to the use of all cisterns, tanks, water supply pipes and gas and electric mains and cables and other pipes and transmitters situated in the premises and used in common by the occupiers of the said building and rights to pass water and soil from the other property of the Landlords through the channels and drains appertaining to the premises and commonly used for that purpose with a right of entry to the premises for the purpose of repairing the same, the Landlords being bound to make good all damage caused to the premises and the fittings and contents.

THIRTEENTH The Landlords shall not be liable to the Tenants for any loss or damage to their furnishings and /or stock in the premises or for the temporary deprivation of the occupancy of the premises by or through the bursting, leakage or failure of gas, water or soil pipes or the choking, stopping or overflow thereof or of the drains, gutters, rhones or conductors or the failure, fusing or breakdown of electric wires or appliances or from any other cause or source whatever provided that the Landlords have taken all ordinary precautions in relation to the said building and so far as within their control so as to prevent such loss or damage occurring, and for that purpose, and for the purpose of an inspection or a repair of other portions of the said building by the Landlords or the other proprietors of such other portions or their respective tenants the Tenants shall permit the Landlords and such other proprietors or their tenants access at all reasonable times when required through or over the premises and in the event of any damage being caused directly or indirectly to the building of which the premises form part through any misuse or negligence on the part of the Tenants they shall forthwith at their own expense restore and repair the same at the sight and to the satisfaction of the Landlords and shall further pay and so free and relieve the Landlords of and from all liability for all loss injury or damage which may be sustained by neighbouring proprietors or tenants.

FOURTEENTH

It shall be lawful for the Landlords and all others authorised by them at any time during the currency hereof to use erect rebuild or alter any land or buildings adjoining above or beneath or under or near to the premises for any purpose and in any manner as the Landlords may think fit and notwithstanding that any privilege or servitude for the time being pertaining to or enjoyed with the premises or any part thereof or any building for the time being thereof may be thereby temporarily obstructed or interfered with but only on condition that the Tenants' occupation and use of the premises for the purposes hereby permitted shall not be prejudiced, restricted or affected in any material way.

FIFTEENTH

The premises (but not the plate glass) shall be insured and kept insured during the currency of this Lease by the Landlords with a reputable Tariff Insurance Company to be selected by the Landlords and through any agent similarly selected in the name of the Landlords and the Tenants as joint insured. The premises shall be insured against loss or damage by fire, aircraft, explosion, riot and civil commotion, storm or tempest, bursting or overflowing of water tanks, apparatus or pipes, flood and impact for full reinstatement value or such greater sum as may be agreed or (failing agreement) as may in the opinion of an experienced and practical surveyor represent the full value of the premises from time to time with the addition in either case of a sum equal to two years loss of rent of the premises. A copy of the insurance policy will be provided to the Tenants on request An insurance against property owners liability shall be maintained during the currency of this Lease for an amount as shall be deemed necessary by the Landlords. If the premises are destroyed or damaged by one or more of the insured risks, then the rent or a fair proportion thereof according to the extent of the damage will be suspended until the premises are fully reinstated. The Landlords shall apply the net proceeds of any insurance monies received by the Landlords in the event of a claim under the insurance policy or policies arranged in terms of the Lease (other than in respect of loss of rent) in rebuilding or reinstatement of the premises and the common parts of the building of which the premises form part as soon as reasonably practicable. In the event that the premises and/or the said common parts have not been rebuilt or reinstated within three years from the date of damage or destruction caused by the insured risks, the Landlords and the Tenants shall be entitled to terminate the Lease by giving to the other one month's notice in writing to that effect and on the expiry of the said notice the Lease shall cease and determine.

SIXTEENTH The Tenants shall remove from possession and use of the premises and the Landlords' fittings and fixtures therein at the natural expiry or earlier termination of this Lease without any warning or process of removal, leaving the premises in such repair and condition as shall be in accordance with the provisions hereinbefore contained and making good any damage caused by the removal of any erections, fixtures, fittings, plant and machinery in the nature of the Tenants or trade fixtures fixed thereto by or belonging to the Tenants.

SEVENTEENTH The Tenants shall permit the Landlords or their Agents at any time within six months before the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease to enter upon the premises and to fix upon any suitable part thereof (but not in the windows or so as to obscure the fascia) a Notice Board for reletting or selling the same and shall permit all persons by order in writing of the Landlords or their Agents to view the premises at all reasonable hours in the daytime subject to prior notice of at least 48 hours without interruption or interference.

EIGHTEENTH If at any time during the currency of this Lease the Tenants shall allow a quarter's rent to be in arrears for twenty one days (whether demanded or not) or shall fail to comply with or shall contravene any of the conditions provisions and restrictions hereinbefore contained or referred to or go into liquidation (otherwise than for the purpose of reconstruction or amalgamation of a solvent company) or shall have a Receiver appointed or in the event of this Lease being in the name of an individual or of a partnership or having been assigned to an individual or to a partnership if he or they shall become apparently insolvent, then and in any of these events the Landlords may, in their option, by notice in writing to the Tenants by recorded delivery to them at the premises, bring this Lease to an end reserving nevertheless the Landlords' claim for all rents due or accrued and in respect of any breach of the conditions of this Lease. Provided always that (1) the Landlords shall not be entitled to operate the foregoing option of irritancy in the case of any breach or default by the Tenants which is capable of being remedied unless and until they shall have given to the Tenants and to every heritable creditor of the Tenants whose interest is notified to the Landlords in writing, written notice referring to the option of irritancy and specifying the breach complained of and also a reasonable time (being fourteen days only in case of failure to pay the rent or other sums payable hereunder), and the Tenants or any party on behalf of the Tenants or said heritable creditor shall have failed to remedy the breach specified in the said notice within the time required by the Landlords in terms of the foregoing provisions and (2) in the event that the Tenants shall go into bankruptcy or liquidation, or shall have a Receiver appointed the Landlords, if requested by the Trustee in bankruptcy or Liquidator or Receiver shall suspend the operation of the foregoing option of irritancy for a period of six months provided the Trustee Liquidator or Receiver shall personally undertake to pay all arrears of rent and meet all the obligations of this Lease for the said period, during which time he shall be entitled to seek to assign the Tenant's interest hereunder and if he shall do so in accordance with the provisions of this Lease the operation of the foregoing option shall be cancelled entirely.

NINETEENTH The Tenants shall be responsible for payment of the stamp duty and registration dues of this Lease and the legal costs of any Assignation or other deed of transmission thereof including the stamp duties exigible thereon, the dues of registering the same in the General Register of Sasines and/or the Books of Council and Session obtaining two extracts and the Landlords' Solicitors fees. The Tenants shall also be responsible for all surveyors' fees and other professional charges properly and reasonably incurred by the Landlords in connection with any application to the Landlords for consent in terms of this Lease or in consequence thereof.

TWENTIETH Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Lease with a view to ensuring that the rent payable hereunder shall from time to time be adjusted so as to be a fair market rent, the rent so payable shall be subject to review at the instance of the Landlords every five years from the date of commencement hereof commencing on 12th February 2006 (each of the said terms being hereinafter called "the relevant term") and such review shall be effected only in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The Landlords shall give to the Tenants at the premises and at the Registered Office of the Tenants three months written notice prior to the relevant term of their intention to exercise their right to require a review of rent. Such notice shall specify the rent which the Landlords propose as the fair market rent at the time in lieu of the rent then payable hereunder (hereinafter called "the current rent") and in the event of the Tenants accepting the rent specified in the said notice as the fair market rent at the time they shall within the period of twenty eight days after receipt of the notice intimate in writing to the Landlords to that effect. Failing such intimation the rent payable under this Lease shall from and after the relevant term be determined as aftermentioned.

(b) In the event of the Tenants not accepting that the rent specified in the said notice represents the fair market rent at the time such rent shall be fixed, failing agreement, by an independent surveyor properly qualified and experienced to be nominated, failing agreement, by the Chairman for the time being of the Scottish Branch of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors on the application of the Landlords. The certificate of such Surveyor as to such rent shall be final and binding to the effect that in the event of the rent specified in the said certificate being more than the current rent the rent specified in the said certificate shall become payable under this Lease from the relevant term, the whole other terms and conditions of this Lease remaining in full force and effect. In the event, however, of the rent specified in the said certificate not being more than the current rent, the current rent shall continue to be the rent payable under this Lease from and after the relevant term. The the whole costs of having fixed as aforesaid the rent payable under this Lease shall be payable equally by the Landlords and the Tenants.

(c) For the purposes of this Clause the expression "fair market rent" shall mean the clear open market annual rent payable by a willing tenant to a willing Landlord taking the premises as they exist and on the assumption, if it not be fact, that the Tenants have complied with all of their obligations in terms of this Lease but disregarding the effect, if any, on the open market rent of (a) the fact that the Tenants or any permitted sub-tenants are in possession of the premises and (b) the goodwill attaching to the business carried out from the premises by the Tenants and (c) any improvements carried out by the Tenants except those carried out as a result of an obligation in terms of the Lease.

(d) In the event of the Landlords having failed to give due notice in terms of paragraph (a) of this Clause of their intention to exercise their right to require a review of rent at any relevant term they shall be entitled to require such a review at any succeedingterm by giving to the Tenantsthree months written notice prior to such term and the foregoing provisions of this Clause shall mutatis mutandis apply review provided (i) that the review of rent in terms of this provision shall have regard to the level of market rents current at the relevant term and not at the succeeding term and (ii) any increase in rent resulting from such review shall have effect from the succeeding term and not from the relevant term.

(e) Unless and until the rent payable under this lease is varied in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause the current rent shall continue to be the rent payable under this Lease and after the rent has been so varied (if such date be later than the relevant term or the succeeding term, as the case may be) there shall be an accounting between the parties in regard to any underpayment of rent in consequence of a variation of rent as aforesaid.

TWENTY FIRST Save as otherwise provided herein any difference or dispute between the parties as to the interpretation of this Lease or as to the fulfilment or otherwise by either party or their respective obligations hereunder or as to any matters connected therewith other than the Tenants obligations in respect of rent in terms of Clause Eighteenth hereof shall, failing agreement, be referred to a single Arbiter to be nominated, failing agreement, by the Dean for the time being of the Royal Faculty of Procurators in Glasgow on the application of either party and the awards of such Arbiter shall be final and binding on the parties.

ASTLY The parties hereto consent to the registration hereof for preservation and execution: And the parties certify that this Lease is not a Lease which gives effect to an Agreement for Lease as interpreted by the Inland Revenue in terms of the Guidance Note dated Thirtieth June Nineteen hundred and Ninety four referring to Section 240 of the Finance Act 1994: IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents consisting of this and the Twenty two preceding pages are subscribed by the said Tulwinder Singh Rai at Glasgow on the Twenty first day of August Two thousand and one before this witness Campbell Dinsmore Joss, Solicitor of One thousand nine hundred and eighty seven Maryhill Road, Glasgow and they are subscribed on behalf of the said Las Vegas Leisure Limited by Rafiq Alam a Director at Glasgow on the Eleventh day of January Two thousand and two before this witness Richard Fitzpatrick, Solicitor of Thirteen Bath Street, Glasgow
